Ice Cream in the City

Wednesday,
September 26
10am-5pm

I Scream! You Scream!

We all scream for ice cream in the city! San Francisco is an ice cream lover's utopia. The past few years have brought a new batch of scoop shops whose products emphasize local, organic ingredients and flavors that range from the lavishly seasoned to the doggedly advance-garde.

Before we partake in our three ice cream tasting stops, we will enjoy a hosted lunch at Spark Social SF. Spark is a new urban gathering space food truck park. Food trucks from all over the Bay Area rotate every single day for lunch service. We will enjoy our lunch in an amazing vintage English-style double-decker bus that has been converted into a quirky, indoor, heated 2-story dining space.

Ice Cream in the City

Wednesday, September 26 - 10am-5pm

Bi-Rite Creamery makes all of their ice cream by hand in small batches. Their creative flavors draw lines that sometimes wrap around the block with tempting combinations like Balsamic Strawberry, Roasted Banana, and Honey Lavender.

At Salt & Straw you will love exploring fun, interesting new flavors. Their classic San Francisco flavors include Roasted Strawberry Coconut, Sightglass Coffee and Single Origin Dandelion Chocolate, and Berkeley Olive Oil, just to name a few.

When you walk into Smitten scoop shop, there's the ice cream at the counter. After you pick your flavor, the Brristras® pour fresh ice cream base into a Brrr®. A chilly fog then blows over the counter as liquid nitrogen freezes each scoop to-order.

ACTIVITY LEVEL: Moderate; walking at your own pace

COST:
$94

Itinerary is subject to change.
