DELTA DIVES

Tuesday, January 26, 8a-6p

This will be a day of exploring the legends and lore of the Sacramento River Delta, with the unparalleled Gary as our guide.

Our morning will begin with traveling through the quaint Delta towns of Rio Vista and Isleton, and learning of their rich history before stopping for our midday meal in Walnut Grove.

Lunch is included at the famous Giusti's Place. Giusti's has been family owned and operated since it opened and is the oldest restaurant and bar in the California Delta. This historic eatery has been serving the Delta for over 100 years!

For dessert you will take a stroll over to Mel's Ice Cream and enjoy a yummy frozen treat! Mel's Ice Cream has a wonderful selection of delicious ice cream including Butter Brickle, Baseball Nut and Butter Pecan, plus a wide selection of excellent old-style ice cream.

Exploring The Sacramento River Delta with Gary!

Tuesday, January 26, 8a-6p

After eating your way through Walnut Grove, you will visit the Walnut Grove Iron Works Home and Garden Gallery. Here you will find a wide range of urban and rustic industrial as well as mountain themed iron works of art for you to enjoy.

The town of Locke, more than 150 years old!

In the afternoon you will have a chance to enjoy a walking tour of the cute town of Locke and Gary's colorful stories, and time on your own. The town of Locke was built by Chinese immigrants for Chinese immigrants, and is the only town of its kind in the U.S. Its unique history provides much for us to explore.
