Riverdance 20 YEARS

Friday, November 6, 3:30-11p

A thrilling pulse pounding performance of the Riverdance is a must see and we have orchestra seats! Drawing on rich traditions, the combined talents of the performers propel Irish dancing and music into the present day, capturing the imagination of audiences of all ages and cultures in an innovative and exciting blend of dance, music and song.

The show is coming back after sold out seasons in Europe and Asia. The Washington Times stated that, "The show is quite simply incredible, a phenomenon of historic proportions." They are coming to San Francisco's Golden Gate Theater for only one week and we have great tickets.

Riverdance 20 YEARS

The original composer and director Bill Whelan is still at the helm after 20 years. His Grammy award winning pedigree will ensure we still see a spectacular show! Who remembers watching the majestic performances with so much intensity and spirit that swept the world in the late 90s? Now we will be able to see them up close and personal with our amazing orchestra seats.

Before the show we will stop by Union Square for a no-host dinner. Union Square has an abundance of choices for everybody and is sure to please all. You can choose from highly acclaimed restaurants such as Farallon (seafood), Kuleto's (Italian), Saha (Middle Eastern), Jai Yun (Chinese) -- just to name a few.

ACTIVITY LEVEL: Low/Moderate, periods of standing and walking at your own pace. Please let us know if you require ADA seating at time of performance.
