Sunday Afternoon at the Villa With the Saint Michael Trio

"Around the World in 80 Minutes"

Sunday, March 6, 12:30-5:30pm

Join us for a Sunday afternoon of music at the historic Villa Montalvo in Saratoga. The concert will feature the Saint Michael Trio, Montalvo's Resident Chamber Ensemble, known for their witty and charming performances.

Villa Montalvo is a Mediterranean Revival mansion that was constructed from 1912 to 1914 by California statesman and businessman James Duval Phelan. The grounds encompass 175 acres and the house includes 19 rooms. After Phelan's death, it was donated to the state as a park and then a cultural and arts center which it is today. In 1978, it was awarded inclusion to the National Register of Historic Parks.

The concert is part of the Villa Chamber series. Unlike most of Montalvo's concerts that take place in the Carriage House Theatre, this one will be performed inside the Villa to an intimate crowd - including us!

Sunday Afternoon at the Villa With the Saint Michael Trio

Sunday, March 6, 12:30-5:30pm

The Saint Michael Trio was established in 2007, and consists of three friends with successful jobs in Silicon Valley. They all have major backgrounds in music and wanted to try out playing music together. Today they are selling out auditoriums and continue to generate a big fan base in the Bay Area.

Daniel Cher plays the violin, Michael Flexer plays the cello, and Russell Hancock plays the piano. They will be performing a set they call "Around the World in 80 Minutes". They will play music from all over the globe with their "western" instruments. This concert truly is a must see!

Prior to the concert, we will have a no-host lunch in downtown Saratoga. The area is filled with diverse and great dining options including:

Hachi Ju Hachi
(Japanese)

Big Basin Café
(American)

La Mere Michelle
