Dames, Divas & Debutantes Of San Francisco

Wednesday, March 30, 2016 - 8:30pm-4:30pm

San Francisco has a long history of intrigue, moguls and railroad tycoons which have created many a fabulously wealthy family fortune. The exciting trials of the city are created from the legacy of the important men who built San Francisco into a bustling metropolis.

Gary's tour celebrates the great women of the past, by painting a different portrait of San Francisco's history from the perspective of this eclectic group of women through colorful stories, proud moments, and their interesting contributions. Lola Montez, Lotta Crabtree, Sally Stanford, Danielle Steele, Patti Hearst, Gracie Allen, Julia Morgan and many others will be the subject of Gary's enthralling tales.

For lunch, enjoy the afternoon tea service at the Laurel Court, in the opulent Fairmont Hotel Nob Hill. You will experience this grand tradition of impeccable service and delectable treats, including tea sandwiches, freshly baked homemade scones, assorted pastries, and an assortment of specialty teas.

ACTIVITY LEVEL: Low: sitting, periods of standing and walking at your own pace, some stairs.

COST:
$114
