NIKE MISSILE SITE

AND MUCH MORE

Thursday, June 9, 8am-5pm

Three Military Sites:

- * Nike Missile Site Museum, Fort Barry
- * Bay Model Visitor Center, Army Corp of Engineers, Sausalito
- * Murray Circle Restaurant, Fort Baker's Cavallo's Point Lodge

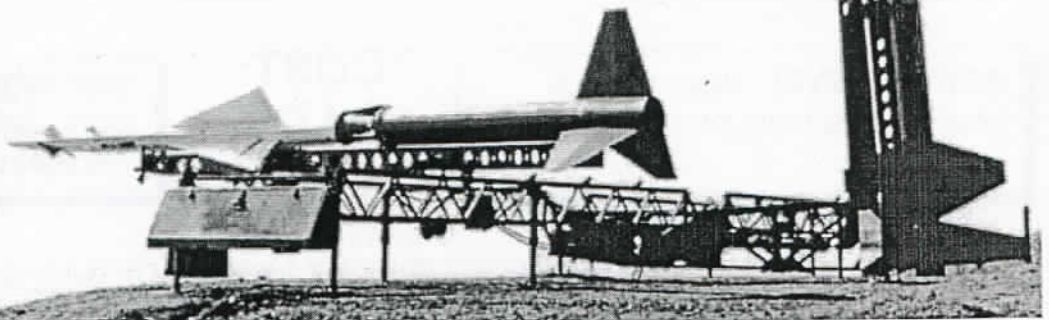

A unique opportunity for a private tour of the Nike Missile Site Museum in Marin, an educational Cold War museum at Fort Barry in the heart of the Golden Gate National Recreation Area. Explore the complete SF Bay-Delta system at a glance with a docent-led tour of the Bay Model Visitor Center in Sausalito.

Then enjoy lunch at Cavallo Point's Murray Circle Restaurant at the former Army Base at Fort Baker.

BAY MODEL VISITOR CENTER

Our docent-led tour of the Bay Model Visitor Center hosts a three-dimensional hydraulic model of the San Francisco Bay and Delta areas capable of simulating real tides and currents.

The model represents an area from the Pacific Ocean to Sacramento and Stockton, including the San Francisco, San Pablo and Suisun Bays and a portion of the Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta.

Once used for research, it was built to determine if building dams in the SF Bay was a viable idea. The model is approximately 320 feet long in the north-south direction and about 400 feet long in the east-west direction.

Enjoy our included lunch at Murray Circle Restaurant in the former Army Base at Fort Baker at the historic Cavallo Point Lodge.

Cavallo Point's acclaimed restaurant, Murray Circle, is one of the Bay Area's top culinary destinations. Highlighting refined modern Northern California cuisine anchored to its Marin roots, the freshest local ingredients and stunning Golden Gate Bridge views - a meal here is inspired!

Fort Baker was built long before there was a Golden Gate Bridge. In 1866, the U.S. Army acquired the site for a military base to fortify the north side of the Golden Gate.

The Army post remained active through World War II. In 1973 Fort Baker was listed as a Historic District in the National Register of Historic Places.

ACTIVITY LEVEL: High; two 1.5 hour walking tours on uncertain ground.
