Napa Valley Wine Train

Friday, February 10

8:30am-5:30pm

Be transported back in time to when trains were the luxurious and elegant way to move about the country. Experience a delicious three course lunch and one welcome taste of private label wine in a 1915-1917 Pullman dining car and lounge car, all while traveling through the beautiful Napa Valley wine country and past famous and historic wineries.

We will board the Napa Wine Train at McKinstry Street Station, located in Downtown Napa, and make our way to St. Helena. We will be passing through Oak Knoll, Yountville, Oakville, and Rutherford, some of the most expensive and famous farm real estate in the country.

The Napa Valley Wine train's history is almost as old as the State of California. The rail line upon which the train travels was built in 1864 by San Francisco's first millionaire, Samuel Branman, to transport visitors.

The luxurious dècor allows guests to relax comfortably as they await their freshly prepared meals in dining cars, the heart of train life.
