FESTIVAL
with FIELD TOUR

Sunday, June 3
8:30am-3:30pm

With nearly two-thirds of America's fresh artichoke supply grown in the small town of Castroville, it is no wonder that it is known as the "Artichoke Center of the World". This annual festival is in its 59th year and we will be there to join the festivities celebrating California's official vegetable.

Kick off the festival with an Artichoke Expert who will take us on a guided tour of Castroville artichoke fields on a school-bus style vehicle for a personalized educational experience about what it takes to grow this unique vegetable (that is actually an un-bloomed flower!)

This festival is full of fun, and with live shows, chef demonstrations, art and craft vendors, a beer and wine garden, and the "crown jewels" of the festival, a farmers market to shop for locally grown produce of the area.

Enjoy your no-host lunch at the festival where you can choose from a selection of food vendors and artichoke-related creations - steamed, grilled & fried artichokes, artichoke burritos, sausage, and artichoke cupcakes. If you can dream it, chances are you'll find it at the festival.
