SAN FRANCISCO MARITIME NATIONAL PARK ASSOCIATION

Tuesday, June 26, 8:45am-4:15pm

San Francisco Maritime National Historical Park offers us the sights, sounds, smells and stories of Pacific Coast maritime history. The park includes a magnificent fleet of historic ships located at Hyde Street Pier. We are having a National Park ranger-led tour to learn more about the fleet of historic vessels in the collection. You will have a chance at a quick stop in the visitor center before our tour.

Next Up Is a Visit To The Alioto-Lazio Fish Company

Tuesday, June 26, 8:45am-4:15pm

This firm has been operating in San Francisco for over 70 years, and is currently owned and operated by women. Here you can see and learn about their salt-water tanks filled with live Dungeness crab and East Coast lobster and their collection of fishing industry memorabilia.

With some of the best views in the city including panoramic sights of Alcatraz, Angel Island, and Marin, Bistro Boudin makes a perfect spot for our hosted lunch with its richly appointed surroundings. Overlooking the fully operational demonstration bakery, we will be dining in the bakery museum room with its richly appointed decor steeped in the history and lore of San Francisco.

After we finish our leisurely lunch, you will have a chance to visit the Boudin Bakery museum and marketplace.

The fun continues with time to stroll the world famous and historic Fisherman's Wharf at your own pace.

ACTIVITY LEVEL: Moderate to High; walking on pier and ship decks

COST:
$131
