Marin County Ramble

Thursday, July 12 - 8:00am-5:30pm

Explore the beauty and bounty of Marin County

We will start our day by learning about the bounty of Marin County with a guided tour of the farmers market. Explore with a brief overview of the history of farmers' markets, meet a few farmers, learn what it's like to be a farmer, and the seasonality of crops.

Then, "dig deeper" and meet a food purveyor, learn from a baker what it is like to make their own bread and then sell it at the market, and meet an artisan and learn about their craft and how they market their art.

There's much more to learn about Marin County - turn the page for more details!

Marin County Ramble

We Learn A Bit Of History About Marin County

Thursday, July 12, 8:00am-5:30pm

Marin County was named after Chief Marin, an 18th century leader of a branch of the Coast Miwok. The Museum of the American Indian is one of the little known treasures of Marin County. Situated on an actual site of a Miwok Village, the Museum is devoted to Native American culture and is the only one of its kind in the Bay Area.

We will have a docent-led tour of a village site where the Coast Miwok lived for hundreds of years, and explore its galleries displaying the beautiful craftsmanship of the Coast Miwok Indians.

Enjoy a hosted lunch at Finnegan's Marin, an American bar and grill meets Irish pub. Awarded best bar/restaurant in Marin. Finnegan's will be just the spot to pause and enjoy a delicious, three-course lunch.

ACTIVITY LEVEL: Moderate; walking tour on uneven and unpaved surfaces, and long periods of standing.

COST:
$101

TRIP INCLUDES: Two Docent-led Tours, Lunch, Transportation, Tips, and Travel Staff

Itinerary is subject to change.

Please plan to meet at the Cupertino Center 30 minutes prior to departure time.
