MOSCONE CENTER

AND

YERBA BUENA

in SAN FRANCISCO

Tuesday, July 31 - 9:15am-4:45pm

Join us in a fun day beginning with a unique opportunity: a private staff-led tour the Moscone Center West, before time to explore your choice of the Yerba Buena Center for the Arts or the Contemporary Jewish Museum.

Moscone Center is the largest meeting space in San Francisco with over 2.5 million attendees in 2016. Join us in learning more about this prominent convention space whose attendees and host contribute greatly to the tourism industry in San Francisco.

YERBA BUENA CENTER or the CONTEMPORARY JEWISH MUSEUM

Tuesday, July 31 - 9:15am-4:45pm

Choose between Yerba Buena Center for the ARTS (YBCA) or the Contemporary Jewish Museum (CJM). The YBCA and the CJM are both ever-changing, non-collecting institutions allowing you to discover something new and different each visit. YBCA re-imagines the role an arts institution can play in community believing that through their exhibitions they can spur and support social change.

Enjoy a leisurely no-host lunch in Yerba Buena Gardens and the surrounding area, an oasis in the heart of San Francisco. Choose from a location in the Metreon such as Buckhorn Grill or Fresca Garden. Wise Sons deli at the Contemporary Jewish Museum serves up a menu of salads, sandwiches, bagels, and matzo ball soup, and is open to the public for a no-host lunch option even if you choose the Yerba Center for the Arts to visit.
