Behind-The-Scenes California Academy of Sciences

Friday, August 24, 9:00am-5:00pm

From stepping out onto the living roof to examining breathtaking geology specimens in their private vault, this behind-the-scenes tour is sure to show you more of the museum than you ever knew existed.

Explore the California Academy of Sciences like never before! Examine rare specimens in their collections, be dazzled in their private gem vault, and head off the beaten track atop its living roof.

Our docent-led tour will include visiting the research collections, not on view to the public, and an appreciation for its library of life, which includes amazing specimens from ichthyology (fish), entomology (insects), and ornithology; (birds) departments.
