Gary's Treasure Island Adventure

Wednesday, November 28, 8:00am-6:15pm

Join us for this special day with the fabulous Gary Holloway as he takes us out on a historic journey of the past and present iconic features of the famous Treasure Island.

Throughout eight decades, this iconic island has hosted visionary national and civic endeavors, inspiring human achievements in art, architecture, and engineering. Gary will take us along to explore prominent landmarks including Treasure Island Museum, the Nimitz House, the Bay Bridge, and other picturesque views.

Wednesday, November 28, 8:00am-6:15pm

While on the island, we will savor a delicious 3-course meal prepared by the talented student chefs of The Job Corps Advanced Culinary Academy Fine Dining Restaurant. Enjoy the view of the City and the Bay from the restaurant with attentive culinary staff! We will be able to experience first hand the program and culinary training designed to shape the lives of teens and young adults for their future.

We will continue to enjoy Gary's fascinating tour as we wander back to favorite points of interest in the beautiful Presidio in San Francisco before heading home.

ACTIVITY LEVEL: Low; all-day driving tour, boarding and de-boarding bus and walking at your own pace at Treasure Island Museum

COST:
$84
