COVID-19 Response Update

The City of Cupertino continues to monitor the effects of COVID-19 as the safety of our residents, staff, and visitors remains our highest priority. The following information regards the City's response to the latest recommendations from the County of Santa Clara Public Health Department. For more information, visit www.cupertino.org/coronavirus.

New

Upcoming Extension and Revisions to the Current Shelter-in-Place Order

Later this week, the Public Health Officers of the Counties of Alameda, Contra Costa, Marin, San Francisco, San Mateo, and Santa Clara as well as the City of Berkeley will issue revised Shelter-in-Place Orders that largely keep the current restrictions in place and extend them through May. The new order will include limited easing of specific restrictions for a small number of lower-risk activities. Read the full statement here:

The City of Cupertino will update the community when information is available.

Cupertino Historical Society Calls for Documenting Cupertino During COVID-19

The Cupertino Historical Society and Museum is calling on the community to help document life in Cupertino during the COVID-19 pandemic.

The Historical Society and Museum has been collecting and archiving Cupertino's past since 1966, and has a collection of over 5,000 tools, graphics, books, artifacts, and more. Today, as we are living through a historically notable time, the Historical Society and Museum wants to hear stories from the Cupertino community.

Submissions can be any of the following:

- more -

- Writings
- Signage
- Photos
- Drawings, paintings, and other forms of art you're creating and documenting
- Short Videos (limited to 500 MB file size, for larger files please email jennifer@cupertinohistoricalsociety.org)

Please take the time to read and respond to each of the fields in the submission form here. For any questions, email Executive Director Jennifer Furlong at jennifer@cupertinohistoricalsociety.org.
