Explore the Filoli Estate!

The Filoli Estate was first imagined by gold rush and water tycoon William Bowers Bourn II. Filoli is an acronym of William Bourns credo: Fight for a just cause; Love your fellow man; Live a good life.

With the help of famed architect William Polk, they turned the vision into reality. The Bourns 36,000 square foot home consisted of 43 rooms filled with exquisite features: marble fireplaces, inlaid parquet floors, and magnificent architectural doorways. It is said that Polk designed the house with a Georgian English style along with some California flair including Spanish roof tiles.

Along with the house, the gardens are absolutely breathtaking. The expansive 16-acre garden is filled with a large variety of flowers and vegetables. Flowers include dahlias, hydrangea, and roses to name a few. Enjoy the wonderful smells and colorful sights of the garden before the concert begins.

The beautiful Filoli Estate has had cameos in movies and television shows including: Dynasty, Heaven Can Wait, The Joy Luck Club, The Wedding Planner, George of the Jungle and Rent.
